

SCHEMA

- School holidays – alone at home – received a call from my neighbor – requested me to look after her seven-year-old child – consented.
- Mrs Jane dropped Robin – seated in a sofa – put on a cartoon film – went in the kitchen – minutes later, I heard a crash – rushed into the parlor – vase shattered
- Furious – scolded him – crying – gave him some snacks – books & colored pencils – prepared cakes – called him – no reply – went to see – most of the books were torn
- I was at my wits' end – wanted to slap him – cooled down 0- put him in the garden – went to answer a call – returned to the garden – he was missing
- Searched for him – went on the street – asked passers-by – came to a shop – Robin was there – eating an ice cream – slapped& scolded him
- Called his uncle to fetch him away – a real peat – my whole day was spoilt – swore never to look after a child again – except mine, of course.
